Celebrate Brown County's Centennial of Flight Jet Air to host "The Airplane Comes to Brown County" on August 29

OSHKOSH, WI. August 11, 2011 – Jet Air, located at Austin Straubel International Airport (KGRB) in Green Bay, Wisconsin, will host "The Airplane Comes to Brown County" a presentation celebrating the 100th anniversary of Brown County's first flight. John and Rose Dorcey, directors of the Wisconsin Aviation Hall of Fame, will present a fascinating talk about Charles C. Witmer, who made the first airplane flight in Brown County on August 29, 1911.

Scheduled for Monday, August 29, 2011, at 6:30 p.m., the event is part of a statewide series of presentations in 13 cities celebrating 100 years of aviation this year. A tabletop exhibit showing each city's inaugural flight will be on display. Jet Air will provide refreshments and offer a .15-cent per gallon fuel discount for anyone flying into Austin Straubel for the event. Jet Air is located on the East Ramp of the airport, at 1921 Airport Drive.

For more information, contact Jet Air Chief Operating Officer Alan Timmerman at 920-494-2669 or email alan@jetair.net. Alternatively, contact WAHF President Rose Dorcey at 920-279-6029 or flyer@aviationhalloffamewisconsin.com.

The Wisconsin Aviation Hall of Fame has inducted more than 100 men and women since it organized in 1985. Its mission is to collect and preserve the history of aviation in Wisconsin, recognize those who made that history, inform others of it, and promote aviation education to future generations.
