WI AVIATION HALL OF FAME ANNOUNCES 2004 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

MIDDLETON, WI. January 18, 2004 - The Wisconsin Aviation Hall of Fame's Board of Directors elected Rose Dorcey, Middleton (WI) as the organization's 2004 President at its January board meeting. As President, Dorcey will lead the historical organization in its goals of endowing its scholarship program, establishing corporate sponsorship and youth educational programs, retaining and recruiting members, and continuing to recognize those individuals who have made significant contributions to aviation in Wisconsin.

Dorcey has served on the organization's Board of Directors since 2001 in various positions, including newsletter editor and fundraising chairperson. Involved in aviation for over 13 years, Dorcey is an instrument rated private pilot and a freelance writer who covers aviation history and events. She succeeds Keith Glasshof, Eau Claire, who will continue on the Board of Directors as he takes on the Event Chairperson position.

Charles Marotske, Milwaukee, was re-elected Vice President. The board agreed to combine the secretary and treasurer positions. John Dorcey, Middleton (WI) was re-elected treasurer and will assume the duties of secretary.

The mission statement of the Wisconsin Aviation Hall of Fame is to collect and preserve the history of aviation in Wisconsin, recognize those who made that history, inform others of it, and promote aviation education for future generations. The organization was founded in 1985. To date, over 65 men and women have been inducted into the Hall of Fame.
